GOVERNMENT SECRETARIAT

My dear Sir,

I herewith send you a Copy of the Bengal Police Gazette dated 5th November 1909 Containing the rules regarding "The King's Police Medal" instituted in British India, as required by you in your D.O. No: J 1734 Pol. 166. 10 dated 9th instant to Mr. Lakshmanasastry. As he is gone on Ry. duty and Empire,

[Reprinted from the Gazette of India of the 2nd October 1909.]

The 30th September 1909.

(635).—The following Statutes establishing "the King's Police Medal" and the Regulations attached thereto, are published for general information:—

THE KING'S POLICE MEDAL.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R. & I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these Presents shall come: Greeting!

Whereas We have taken into our Royal consideration the good services which are rendered by officers of the Constabulary Forces and by persons serving in Fire Brigades within Our Dominions and in Territories under Our Protection or Jurisdiction and the heroic acts of courage and instances of conspicuous devotion to duty of such persons which are from time to time brought to Our notice:

And whereas We are desirous of distinguishing such meritorious conduct by some mark of Our Royal favour:

We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, institute and create a new Medal to be awarded for such acts of courage and conspicuous devotion to duty.

Firstly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall be designated and styled "The King's Police Medal."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the King's Police Medal shall consist of a circular Medal of Silver with Our Effigy on the obverse, and on the reverse a design emblematic of Protection from danger, and shall bear on the rim the name of the person to whom the Medal is awarded.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall only be awarded to those of our Faithful Subjects and others who being members of a recognized Police Force or of a properly organized Fire Brigade within our Dominions or in Territories under Our Protection or Jurisdiction, have performed acts of exceptional courage and skill or have exhibited conspicuous devotion to duty; and that such award shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer this Decoration shall be published in the London Gazette, and that a Register thereof shall be kept in the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Such Register shall show the name and rank of the person holding the Medal, the Police Force or Fire Brigade of which he is or was a member, and particulars of the action for which the Medal has been awarded.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that each Medal shall be suspended from the left breast, and the riband, of an inch and three-eighths in width, shall be dark blue with a narrow silver stripe on either side.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that any act of gallantry which is worthy of recognition by the award of the King's Police Medal, but is performed by one upon whom the Decoration has already been conferred, may, on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, be recorded by a Bar attached to the riband by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional act an additional bar may be added.

Seventhly.—In order to make such provision as shall effectually preserve pure this honourable Decoration, it is ordained that if any person on whom the Decoration is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Our judgment disqualifies him for the same, this Medal shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, be forfeited, and his name shall be forthwith erased from the register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall before receiving the same enter into an agreement to return the same, if his name shall be so erased as aforesaid under this regulation. It is hereby further declared that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be the sole judges of the circumstances demanding such forfeiture.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command:

H. J. Gladstone.

The following Regulations shall be observed in recommending His Majesty to grant the King's Police Medal:—

1. A list of the names of officers of recognized Police Forces, or of properly constituted Fire Brigades, who are recommended for the Medal, shall be submitted once in each year to His Majesty by the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Provided that a recommendation may be made at any time when His Majesty so commands.

2. A list of officers recommended by the Secretary of State for the Colonies and the Secretary of State for India shall be forwarded to the Home Office in the month of October in each year.

3. Each list shall contain the name and rank of each person recommended, the Police Force or Fire Brigade of which he is or was a member, and particulars of the action or service for which the grant of the Medal is recommended.

4. The number of Medals awarded in any one year shall not exceed one hundred and twenty, of which at the most forty shall be awarded for service in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, thirty for service in His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, and fifty for service in the Empire of India.

5. In very special circumstances, which, in His Majesty's opinion, would justify an exceptional grant, His Majesty may award Medals exceeding the above number.

6. The qualifications for the grant of the Medals shall be as follows:—

(a) Conspicuous gallantry in saving life and property, or in preventing crime or arresting criminals; the risks incurred to be estimated with due regard to the obligation and duties of the officer concerned.

(b) A specially distinguished record in administrative or detective service.

(c) Success in organizing Police Forces or Fire Brigades or Departments, or in maintaining their organization under special difficulties.

(d) Special services in dealing with serious or widespread outbreaks of crime or public disorder, or of fire.

(e) Valuable political and secret services.

(f) Special services to Royalty and Heads of States.

(g) Prolonged service; but only when distinguished by very exceptional ability and merit.

10 In British India "Police" medals have been instituted under the authority of a Royal warrant.*
Sir W. Lee-Warner in his latest work (The Native States of India) recognises "that native Sovereigns have conferred titles on their own subjects". I have not been able to get any references on the question of instituting medals. It is not known whether Communication with the Res' is necessary. [possibly there are refers in the D. Secy. 11 The rewards proposed by the D.I.G. may be sanctioned.

12 The institution of a regular Police medal seems to be inexpedient. It will look as if it is an imitation of the Police medal instituted in Br India by Royal warrant + perhaps the Govt of India may object to Native States instituting a medal on similar lines. In exceptional services there would be no objection to ~~granting~~ rewarding a man with a medal ~~but~~ without instituting a system of such rewards as proposed. 3 It is also doubtful whether too much is not sought to be made of this capture of the Pamberang. The rewards proposed seem to be sufficiently liberal.

* And it is open to the British Govt to award such medals to persons in the Employ of the Native States. (vide terms of the warrant).

SIR,

With reference to para 2 of Government Order No.J.636/Police/26-08 dated the 21st September 1909 in re the grant of suitable rewards to the subordinate Police officers and others who rendered good service in connection with the capture of the Pamlore dacoits in the Kadur District in October 1908, I have the honor to forward herewith a list showing the names of such Police officers and other men as deserve being rewarded for their good services. 4 C S

The Police Inspectors who did signal service have been rewarded by being promoted to the next higher grade in special recognition of their services in this connection.

The reward of a watch or bangle has been recommended in the case of those whose services were invaluable both in the capture of and the investigation of the cases against the dacoits. A reward of Rs.2/- has been recommended to those who took part merely in the capture.

Re the grant of rewards to Police offic

the Pamlore dacoits in the Kadur di

The total of rewards recommended comes up to Rs.610/

I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government in the matter.

In this connection, I beg to report that the convictions and sentences passed by the Dharwar Sessions Judge were confirmed in the appeal by the High Court of Bombay.

I beg further to suggest for the consideration of Government that officers who worked in this connection, in addition to other rewards, be awarded a "Police Medal" just as they do in British India for exceptional good service. The institution of a medal of this kind will be an incentive to Police officers to exert themselves to work as to earn the medal. Such a reward will be highly appreciated by the Police officers. I hope that this suggestion will meet with the approval of Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

O'Dwyer

Judgment recorded by the High Court in criminal appeals nos.[illegible] and 437 to 442 of 1909 in the case of Emperor Vs Khirai Lias Dol Khirai Lias Gappa and others.

[illegible] May 1910

(Coram:- Batchelor and Heaton J J).

Per curiam :- The 24 appellants here have been convicted of dacoity under section 395, Indian Penal Code, and have been sentenced each to 7 years' rigorous imprisonment.

The trial was held before Mr. L. Graham, the Assistant Sessions Judge of Dharwar.

The appeal has been argued by Mr. Kelkar who, while urging all that could reasonably be urged on behalf of his clients, has compressed his remarks with commendable brevity. He has admitted the fact of the dacoity. He has admitted also that the property which the complainant identified as his, did in fact belong to him and the learned pleader has felt himself unable seriously to contest the correctness of the Assistant Sessions Judge's findings in regard to the guilt of the accused against whom several distinct lines of evidence converge to establish their guilt. Their case therefore we need not pursue further beyond saying that the evidence against them has been marshalled by the Assistant Sessions Judge with the greatest care and thoroughness and his judgment discloses that, in the case of each individual accused, all the evidence has been weighed and measured with most creditable care.

The accused persons in regard to whom Mr. Kelkar has pressed his appeal are nos.7,11,15 and 18. As to them it is urged that they produced no stolen property and that they were not identified by witnesses by any of the inmates of the house at the time of the offence. That is doubtless so. But none-the-less the evidence against them appears to us to be perfectly convincing. They were identified by other witnesses

As to the argument that the learned Assistant Sessions Judge was wrong in disregarding the admitted identifications in his own court and in relying upon the record of the identification parade at Ladar on the 20th of October 1908, we do not think that there is any substance in it. It is clear that the result of the identification of October 1908 before the Magistrate, or so of the commission of the Society, is not only a piece of evidence but a very important piece of evidence and the Assistant Sessions Judge was quite right in so regarding it.

It is not necessary to deal further with the case, because, all that need be said about it has been said in the Assistant Sessions Judge's judgment.

We confirm the convictions and sentences and dismiss these appeals.

Judgment recorded by the High Court in Criminal Appeal No. 526 of 1909 in the case of Inspector of Industrial Police Bibile Wellagama No.2 and another.

6th May 1910.

(Coram:- Bonser C.J. and Weston J.)

Per Curiam:- This is another deceit case which was heard and decided by the Assistant Sessions Judge Mr. Graham.

Twelve accused persons were charged before him of whom he convicted the present appellants who were accused Nos.2 and 11.

Mr. Keller for the appellants has argued that the evidence of the two women Iri and Muri ought not to be believed and that if it is believed it is insignificant.

It seems to us that there is no reason to doubt the truth of these witnesses and the significance of their evidence did not escape the notice of the accused themselves. That evidence is corroborated by various other particulars to which the learned Assistant Sessions Judge has drawn attention. When the evidence is considered as a whole, it seems to us that it fully justifies the conclusion to which the Judge and the Assessors arrived.

We therefore dismiss this appeal and confirm the convictions and sentences.

Judgment recorded by the High Court in Criminal Appeals nos.527 [illegible] 1909 in the case of Emperor v. [illegible] and others.

[illegible]th May 1910.

(Coram :- [illegible] and Tek Chand JJ)

Per curiam :- This is a similar case to that which we have just disposed of. Several persons are charged with dacoity before Mr. Graham, the Assistant Sessions Judge of Montgomery and two Assessors.

The Assessors were for convicting all the accused but the learned Assistant Sessions Judge convicted only the appellants Ghulam and accused nos.1,7,8 and 9. He has explained his reasons in a very careful judgment and after hearing all that Mr. Keller has to say on behalf of the appellants, we find that he has not succeeded in throwing any doubt upon the correctness of the judgment of the Assistant Sessions Judge.

This appeal therefore must be dismissed and the convictions and sentences confirmed.
